2019 Bucyrus Foundation Community Grant Recipients Named

The Bucyrus Foundation and City of South Milwaukee are proud to announce recipients of the 2019 Bucyrus Foundation Community Grants.

The program was announced earlier this year, with the Bucyrus Foundation pledging $25,000 in support to nonprofit organizations that improve the quality of life of residents in the city, or help attract new visitors, residents or businesses to South Milwaukee.

- American Legion Post 27
- Bucyrus Oldtimers Association
- City of South Milwaukee July 4th event
- City of South Milwaukee Beautification Committee
- Friends of Grant Park
- South Milwaukee Heritage Days Parade Foundation
- South Milwaukee High School Theatre Company
- South Milwaukee Human Concerns
- South Milwaukee Industrial Museum
- South Milwaukee Performing Arts Council

Said Mayor Erik Brooks: “These are important and necessary investments that will make a real difference for a number of vital community organizations, programs and events. I am grateful the Bucyrus Foundation has stepped up to support these institutions.”

Said former Bucyrus CEO and Foundation Chairman Tim Sullivan: “The Bucyrus Foundation and I are thrilled to fund these South Milwaukee organizations. These grants reflect the commitment Bucyrus and our employees had in passionately supporting community organizations.”
